The total number of needy students who were registered in financial year 2015-2016 was four hundred and forty three. One hundred and fifty five qualified and were awarded with either bursaries, or scholarships, while another group opted to serve under work-study programme and get some little earning and the rest were referred to HELB for their loans and bursaries to be updated and maximized. The remaining 288 students were not awarded as their family backgrounds had not been verified in writing by their referees. The awards were as tabulated in table attached herein.
