2. The preferred lengths for submissions are as follows:
 - a. Articles: 6000–8000 words including references, notes, tables and figures;
 - b. Notes/Comments: 3000–4000 words;
 - c. Book Reviews: 1500–2500 words;
 - d. The articles should include an abstract that is citation free (250-300 words).
 - e. Manuscript to contain no more than 50 references (except in exceptional circumstances).

C: Preparing your manuscript for submission:

(See information to authors: <https://www.ajol.info/index.php/hjhr/about/submissions>)

1. Manuscript should be submitted in Word, font 12, Times Roman, double spaced.

- a. Title and Author Information: following information should be included
 - b. Paper title
 - c. Author and all co-author(s) names and academic designations
 - d. institutional affiliation
 - e. E-mail addresses and contact details of author and all co-authors.
 - f. Keywords: Add about four-five key words or phrases in alphabetical order, separated by comma.
2. Introduction: This section should be succinct, with no subheading and no references.
 3. Use 's' spellings instead of 'z' spellings. This means that words ending with '-ize', 'ization', etc., will be spelt with 's' (e.g., 'recognise', 'organise', 'civilise').
 4. Use British spellings in all cases rather than American spellings (hence, 'programme' not 'program', 'labour' not 'labor', and 'centre' and not 'center').
 5. Use single quotes Quotations of 45 words or more should be separated from the text and indented with one line space above and below.
 6. Use 'twentieth century', '1980s'. Spell out numbers from one to nine, 10 and above to remain in figures. However, for exact measurements, use only figures (3 km, 9 per cent, not %).
 7. Use of italics should be minimised, but used consistently. Tables and figures to be indicated by numbers separately, not by placement.
 8. References: Hakijhr adheres to two methods of citation.
 9. APA (American Psychological Association) citation Style (the author's last name and the year of publication, for example: (Field, 2005). For direct quotations, include the page number as well, for example: (Field, 2005, p. 14).
 10. OSCOLA (Oxford Standard for the Citation of Legal Authorities) citation style for research papers related to Law & Legal Affairs.
 11. Authors are responsible for ensuring that the information in each reference is complete and accurate.

D: Editorial Policies

1. Peer review

1. Hakijhr is a peer-reviewed journal, which follows a double blinded review process.
2. Under the process, author's scholarly work and research is subjected to the scrutiny of other experts - at two different levels in the same field to check its validity and evaluate its suitability for publication.
3. Article would then on be accepted /not accepted or accepted after modification which the author is required to carry out subsequently.

2. Plagiarism

- a. Hakijhr is licensed by the Creative Commons:
<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0>
- b. Hakijhr takes issues of copyright infringement, plagiarism or other breaches of best practice in publication very seriously. We seek to protect the rights of our authors and we shall endeavour to investigate claims of plagiarism or misuse of published articles. Equally, we seek to protect the reputation of the journal against malpractice.
- c. Submitted articles may be checked with duplication-checking software.

- d. Where an article, for example, is found to have plagiarised other work or included third-party copyright material without permission or with insufficient acknowledgement, or where the authorship of the article is contested, we reserve the right to take action including, but not limited to:
- e. Publishing an erratum or corrigendum (correction); retracting the article;
 - i. Taking up the matter with the head of department or dean of the author's institution and/or relevant academic bodies or societies; or
 - ii. Taking appropriate legal action.
